Classroom Philosophy

I believe every student can succeed in a supportive and engaging environment.

I am committed to fostering curiosity, and critical thinking and a love for learning

I value respect, kindness, hard work and celebrating each student's unique strengths

In our classroom, we build curiosity, ignite passion and create engagement that empowers every learner to thrive

Words That Inspire Me

"The ones who thrive are not necessarily the ones who come in with the perfect scores. It's the ones who love what they're doing and go at it vigorously."

Carol S. Dweck, Mindset

"Every student can teach me something. Every student can make me a better teacher."
